Santander Bank may also ask to see a government issued ID such as a driver's license, non-driver's ID, passport, or other identifying documents.

If you intend to act as a Guarantor for the credit of one or more primary applicant(s) and are providing information to Santander Bank for that purpose, please be advised that if Santander Bank determines that you do not meet its standards of creditworthiness for the amount and/or kind of credit desired by the primary applicant, Santander Bank is required by law to provide the specific reasons for such adverse action to the primary applicant and NOT to you. Unless you are willing to share the specific reasons for adverse action based upon your credit history with the primary applicant you should not sign this application or submit a Personal Financial Statement to Santander Bank.
