

In Loving Memory of Carlton Miller

1980-2025

With deep sadness, we share the passing of Carlton Miller, affectionately known as “Big Homie” and “Buck” by those closest to him. Carlton was a valued member of the Small Wrecker Team, where he served as a skilled welder for over 11 years. His dedication, warmth, and camaraderie left a lasting impact on everyone who had the privilege of working alongside him.

Outside of work, Carlton found joy in the simple pleasures of life—fishing, kayaking, hiking with his sons, and nurturing his garden. He especially treasured time spent with his beloved granddaughter Harper. His family fondly recalls his playful spirit and love for horror movies, often laughing about how he managed to scare them before the movie did.

Carlton is survived by his sons, Christopher (Courtney) Miller and Josh Miller, and his granddaughter, Harper Patterson.

Please keep Carlton’s family in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
